rations were especially pretty. White carnations and smilax formed an effective centerpiece of the table, at either corner of which stood handsome silver candlesticks, with candles and shades of green. Green and white were also carried out in the confections and ices, which were made in original and beautiful designs. Punch was served in the living-room, tall palms on either side of the table making a pretty canopy. Very delightful music was furnished by a stringed orchestra stationed in an alcove to the south of the reception hall.

Happy Day Named.

On the morning of April 27th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Smalley will take place the marriage of their daughter, Mrs. Louise Smalley Smith, and William H. Curtis of St. Joe, Mo. The wedding will be very quiet, the bride and groom leaving immediately after the ceremony for an extended tour of California, Mexico and the Southern States before taking up their residence in St. Joe, where they will be at home to their friends after June 15th.

For Mrs. McGillicuddy.

Covers were laid for ten at the dinner given Friday evening by Mrs. David S. Murray in honor of Mrs. McGillicuddy. White and green were used in decoration, a handsome candelabrum with white candles and green shades surrounded the centerpiece. In addition to the guests of honor there were present Mrs. and Mrs. Nellie M. Curtis, Mrs. David B. Housh, Mrs. Robert Gould Smith, J. Walcott Thompson and Louis McCormick.

Luncheon at Post.

Dulces and ferns were used in decoration at the altogether charming luncheon of Wednesday at the home of Mrs. S. D. Sturgis of Fort Douglas. The guests were Mrs. Stephen H. Babcock, Mrs. Benner N. Smith, Mrs. Clifford R. Peersall, Mrs. John E. Woodward, Mrs. James L. Frank, Mrs. George L. Nye, Mrs. Robert J. Glendinning, Mrs. David S. Murray, Mrs. Harris K. Masters.

Assembly a Success.

Tuesday evening witnessed the last of the season's assemblies, a series of dances that have been altogether delightful for the more than 200 patrons. There have been four of them, each seeming pleasanter than the others, and the general verdict was that the last was the best. The hall last Tuesday evening was tastefully arranged with palms, calla lilies and corymbes. Supper was served from 11 to 12 o'clock in the dining-room of the Commercial club, the small tables being decorated with lilies, smilax and candlesticks holding white candles. Many elegant gowns were seen, it being remarked that not often are so many beautiful creations seen at a social event in this city.

Mrs. Heber M. Wells, Mrs. David B. Hempstead, Mrs. R. H. Channing, Mrs. Walter C. Filer, Mrs. W. Montague Perry, Mrs. E. O. Howard, Mrs. David S. Murray and Mrs. George K. Fischer are the ladies who have had the assemblies in charge, and they have been most heartily congratulated for the success of the series.

Entertained at Dinner.

Preceding the assembly of Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. William H. Cunningham entertained at a delightful dinner. Low bowls of Chantilly roses stood at either end of the table, in the center being a handsome candelabrum with pink shades. The guests at the dinner were Mrs. A. E. Walker, Miss Jasmine Young, Miss Addie Zane, Clem Schramm, John S. Critchlow and George N. Lawrence.
